Wyoming Workers Memorial Day

Monday, April 28, 2014  10 a.m. Wyoming State Capitol – Rotunda

Program

9:45 a.m. – Gathering

10 a.m. – Remembrance prayer – Karen O’Malia, Christ Lutheran Church, Cheyenne

Family matters

- How a job-related death affects a family – Ed Simmons, Casper. Ed is the father of Anthony Simmons, who was killed on a Casper job April 10, 2013
- Remembering the lost – Those attending are asked to rise to say the name of a loved one killed on the job. List of recent dead is read.

The Wyoming coalition for workplace safety

- Kim Floyd remarks on commemorating the dead and fighting for the living.

The government view

- Letter from Governor Mead – Read by governor’s representative
- Remarks from Joan Evans, Director, Wyoming Department of Workforce Services

The Legislature and job safety

10:55 – Closing prayer – Rev. Dee Lundberg, United Church of Christ, Casper